

BEAUTY SPOT: MEREADESSO WOMAN BEAUTIFUL BODY BALM

Less is more – the ubiquitous phrase that can be applied to everything from fashion to passion. Am I wearing too much make-up? Less is more. Am I dating too many men? Less is more. Is this article too wordy? Less is more. Lest we forget, there's also its recent reappearance from the mouth of mama Wintour herself in The September Issue.

It may be time to apply this theory to your product cabinet. No doubt, like us, you have a cream for every crevice of your face – maybe it's time to toss them all away and try an all-in-one? Canadian beauty brand Mèreadesso Woman is a luxury skincare line. Their newest product, Beautiful Body Balm, has eight vitamins and minerals and 28 botanical extracts. Mineral salts and Brazilian cocoa help improve skin tone, while oat flour and olive and soybean oils reduce the appearance and feel of dry, flaky skin.

The formula eliminates the need for multiple products because it's safe and designed for use from head to toe – literally.

$54 for a 200 ml bottle, available at mèreadesso.com.
