Ever used a primer to keep your favorite lip color in place? And during the winter, wouldn't it be nice if that same primer could also keep your lips feeling soft and luscious? Looks like we found "it".

Mèreadesso a Toronto based skincare products company, just added a latest product to their existing line, perfectly fitted for the cold days:

Lip Treats, one of the best lip balm you'll ever cover your lips with, winter days or not.

We have tested Lip Treats and the results are remarkable. If only your lips could kiss you...

Without a hint of waxy build-up, Lip Treats doubles the wear time of any lipstick, gloss or lip liner, all while keeping your lips feeling soft and moist.

You can feel the difference within minutes of applying this lush blend of natural ingredients (evening primrose, grape seed, coconut and sunflower oils) enhanced with Vitamins A, C and E.

And because of its fancy reusable pouch (minimalist business cards holder for us), you can slip in your Lip Treats anywhere, from your purse to your slim pants. Oh, and did we mention that they are sold by the pair? Double the ~~trouble~~ pleasure. But enough teasing, time for some pleasing.

miss SLY! is giving away Three Lip Treats pairs courtesy of Mreadesso and here's how you can give your lips a reason to pucker up: Three ways to participate (best chance if you do all three).

- In the comments section, tell us what your favorite lip balm is
- Follow @missSLY on Twitter and tweet this: @missSLY Give my lips a reason to pucker up #LipTreats
- "Like" miss SLY! Facebook page and share what your favorite lip balm is on our wall

Contest runs until Sunday, November 27 11:59pm, and winners will be announced Monday, November 28 at noon (est).

Lip Treats can be purchased online via Mèreadesso for $28.00 CAD. Best of luck everyone. We can't wait to "read your lips".
